

Jillian Agdern

As a Principal at HPA, Jillian Agdern guides complex urban mixed-use projects from conceptual design through construction completion. She is particularly focused on sustainability, project coordination, and creative problem solving to achieve great design. As a LEED- and Green Globes-accredited professional, she applies her expertise to ensure large buildings leave smaller footprints through energy conservation and use of natural resources. Jillian's projects have received numerous green certifications. She is a key member of HPA's Sustainability Group, which develops firm-wide best practices and protocols for sustainable architecture.

Her portfolio includes multi-use residential and office projects in Chicago and across the country, including 1045 West Fulton and 1020 West Randolph in Chicago's Fulton Market; Collective on 4th in Portland; and Hub Eugene in Oregon.

Jillian is a Registered Architect who earned both her Master of Architecture and Bachelor of Science in Architectural Studies degrees from the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign, where she participated in the yearlong study-abroad program in Versailles, France. She was recognized as one of the "36 Under 36" young Jewish leaders in Chicago in 2019, and was selected as a JCC Chicago Women in Power Fellow for 2020.
