MNCREW COMMITTEE OPPORTUNITIES

Every MNCREW committee provides its members with the opportunity to serve our mission of influencing the advancement of each member's career. Our members get involved, network, and grow. For more information or to get involved, please contact the committee chairs listed on the MNCREW website at minnesota.crewnetwork.org/get-involved/committees.

Communications Committee

The Communications Committee is responsible for maintaining and expanding MNCREW's presence, influence, image and brand both inside and outside the organization. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Create and publish a high-quality and well-branded electronic quarterly newsletter
- Obtain publicity for all programs and events through existing media relations and new sources
- Manage and enforce the MNCREW brand including the chapter website content and all printed collateral
- Oversee MNCREW's social media pages and content (LinkedIn, Instagram, Facebook)

Culture & Inclusion Committee

The Culture & Inclusion Committee works to support MNCREW's core values of excellence, community, leadership, and advancement and expand upon them to make sure we're working to advance the achievements of a broad range of women in the industry, including those from historically marginalized groups, which, in turn, will advance the industry as a whole. The primary role of the C&I Committee will be to serve as liaisons to all the other committees to ensure that applying MNCREW's core values to a broader range of individuals stays at the forefront of planning and initiatives each committee undertakes.

Education & Leadership Committee

The purpose of the Education & Leadership Committee is to provide educational opportunities and career skills outside of monthly programs for members. Some of the responsibilities are:

- MNCREW Book Club
- Exclusive Project Peeks for members
- Mentorship program
- Development of other educational opportunities for MNCREW members and students, including Conversations & Coffee

Events Committee

The Events Committee finds new and creative ways to maximize MNCREW membership and industry exposure through event planning. On an annual basis, the Events Committee will create events around the following criteria. The goal is to offer events that are fun, fresh and ever-changing. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Hold events that benefit the CREW Network Foundation
- Hold events that promote networking through social engagement for all members including emerging leaders and legacy members
- Past event examples include: golf event, the MNCREW Celebration Awards, boat cruise, and Handbag Bingo

Finance Committee

The purpose of the Finance Committee is to monitor MNCREW's finances and make strategic and fiscally sound recommendations to the Board of Directors so that MNCREW's financial position remains healthy. Works under the direction of MNCREW's Treasurer. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Provide oversight of financial statements, bank account reconciliations and audits
- Lead budgeting activities with Treasurer and finalize budget for approval by the Board
- Review "actual to budget" summaries and provide variance summaries to Treasurer
- Review investments and provide investment recommendations and strategy

Member Engagement Committee

The focus of the Member Engagement Committee is to identify and recruit new members and ensure existing members are inspired to actively participate in MNCREW. The committee recruits and retains members who will, in turn, broaden the range of experience levels and professional disciplines within the organization. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Recruit new members while working to retain existing members
- Strategically create and implement a targeted plan to reach out to prospective new members ensuring a cross section of the industry and diverse membership base
- Greeting new members at monthly programs and events
- Acts as a central resource for membership information and promote the value of CREW Network membership to potential and active members
- Process new member applications

Programs Committee

The Programs Committee's goal is to provide high quality speakers and topics that are timely, informative and of interest to MNCREW's diverse membership at the MNCREW monthly meetings. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Create program topics for monthly programs and recruit speakers
- Lead/moderate monthly programs
- Create course descriptions and learning objectives to qualify for real estate credits
- Manage venue contract and issues for monthly programs
- Collaborate with Sponsor and Member Engagement Committees to plan programs that support their initiatives

Rising Leaders

The Rising Leaders is a peer group of professionals in the beginning phase of their career, starting at a new company, new to the Twin Cities, or new to MNCREW.

Sponsor Engagement Committee

The Sponsor Engagement Committee educates our member companies and the commercial real estate industry at large on the benefits of supporting MNCREW. Some of the responsibilities are:

- Develop and conduct the annual sponsorship drive and subsequent drive campaigns
- Design sponsor benefit packages
- Encourage and solicit MNCREW member and non-member sponsorships where applicable
- Coordinate sponsorship information with MNCREW staff to make sure sponsors are receiving all benefits due
- Greatest focus for this committee is September through February timeframe

Signature Event Committee

The Signature Event Committee develops and executes the annual signature event for MNCREW and the larger community. In 2019, the committee launched the inaugural MNCORK: Battle of the Bottles event and has continued to reinvent the MNCORK concept each year.
