ABOUT CAPTAIN DAYS

Capt. Janet H. Days, a native of Chicago, graduated summa cum laude from Old Dominion University with a Bachelor of Science in Business and received her commission through Naval ROTC via the Enlisted Commissioning Program. She holds a MBA from the Naval Postgraduate School and concurrently earned the Naval War College command and staff diploma. She is also a graduate of Joint and Combined Warfighting School at Joint Forces Staff College and is a qualified joint specialty officer.

In addition to several sea assignments, Days served as the Destroyer Squadron 28 material officer (N4) and staff director embarked aboard USS Dwight D. Eisenhower (CVN 69), where she completed two deployments to the USCENTCOM AOR in support of Operation Enduring Freedom. As XO, she deployed independently to the U.S. 6th and 5th Fleet AORs. Ashore, Days was assigned to the Joint Staff as a military analyst and observer trainer augment to the deployable training team; she also deployed to Kabul, Afghanistan. As the Director of Maritime Warfare (N73) at Surface Warfare Officers School, she was responsible for training and development of all surface warfare department heads as well as providing instruction for prospective executive officers, commanding officers and major command students. Days reported to Naval Station Norfolk as Executive Officer in September 2021 and assumed command as the 51st Commanding Officer in February 2023.
