

Ashmore Consulting is your trusted resource for business tax credits, incentives and strategic location services. Julie Ashmore, CEO is a tax credits and location incentives expert. She has 24+ years of extensive knowledge in the process and has built key relationships, that saves clients many hours and increase their bottom line. In 15 minutes, we can tell you how to leverage opportunities that will greatly impact your bottom line by creating a portfolio of strategies that leverage tax credits, incentives and location. We are the go-to experts when it comes to guiding executive officers and businesses through the process of leveraging and maximizing tax credits, incentives and location optimization. We support clients in over 35 states.