

Angelia Wesch

Angelia D. Wesch is a highly regarded construction and insurance recovery attorney with more than 30 years of experience advising construction companies, real estate developers, and property owners on complex legal and business challenges. Her practice focuses on heavy civil infrastructure projects, differing site conditions, delay and impact claims, and sophisticated insurance coverage and recovery strategies. Angelia has represented clients responsible for some of the nation's largest transportation and infrastructure projects, providing strategic counsel on multimillion-dollar construction disputes involving builder's risk, commercial general liability, and professional liability (E&O) policies.

A passionate advocate for leadership development and the advancement of women in commercial real estate, construction, and the legal profession, Angelia has been actively involved with Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) since 1995. She previously served as President of the CREW Seattle Chapter and served on the CREW Network Board of Directors. Over the last decade, she has been one of the original visionaries and driving forces behind the CREW Seattle Leadership Program, dedicating countless hours to mentoring and developing future industry leaders. Her longstanding commitment to empowering women through leadership and professional development was recognized in 2025 when she received CREW Seattle's prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award.

Beyond CREW, Angelia is an original member of Women Leaders in Construction, a professional networking organization serving more than 500 women in the construction industry. She also serves on the Pike Place Market Foundation Board of Directors and its Community Services Committee, supporting initiatives that promote economic stability, food access, healthcare, education, and community well-being for the people who live and work in Seattle's historic Pike Place Market neighborhood. In recognition of her expertise and professional accomplishments, Angelia was selected as a Fellow of the American College of Coverage Counsel in 2020.

Throughout her career, Angelia has received numerous professional honors. She has been recognized in The Best Lawyers in America® for Insurance Law, Real Estate Law, Litigation–Construction, and Litigation–Insurance from 2021 through 2026, and was named a “Daring Woman” by Seattle Business Magazine in 2020. Her extensive industry leadership, mentorship, and client service have established her as one of the Pacific Northwest's most respected attorneys in the construction, real estate, and insurance sectors.
