Linda is an MBA candidate at Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management and serves as an Assistant Vice President of Asset Management at Heitman, where she manages a national portfolio of multifamily and self-storage investments. Drawing on her background in accounting, finance, and real estate, Linda is passionate about creating value through strategic asset management and investment decision-making. She currently serves as Co-President of the Kellogg Real Estate Club and is actively involved in The Goldie Initiative, REFF and ULI Chicago.